GETTING INTO THE THEATRE

The Richard Rodgers Theatre is accessible without steps from the street at 226 West 46th Street.

You may be asked to wait in line outside until the doors open at 12:30 p.m. The house staff will let everyone in as soon as they are ready to seat the audience.

You will be taken through security and asked to present your tickets for scanning.

- Orchestra rows A through K have the only seats accessible without steps.
- The mezzanine is located one flight of stairs up from the orchestra. There is no elevator.
- Wheelchair accessible seats are located in the orchestra. There is a wheelchair accessible restroom located in the main lobby.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Photos and videos are NOT PERMITTED inside the theatre. We want you to enjoy the show while still respecting the theatre's policies.

- TDF will have a professional photographer on-site taking flash photos to be used on social media.
- Please let the photographer know if you do not want to be photographed.
- There is no charge for having your picture taken. These photos will be available to download for free from TDF's Facebook page at facebook.com/tdfnyc a few days after the performance.
- While you are not allowed to take photos or videos during the performance, communication devices are permitted. Theatre staff are trained to recognize the difference between filming and using communication devices.

RESOURCE MATERIALS

At this theatre, the Family Restrooms are located in the main lobby on the orchestra level. Volunteers can guide patrons to the restrooms but cannot enter or assist.
- A wheelchair accessible restroom is available in the main lobby. This is also a Family Restroom.

PEOPLE

Hamilton Staff

- In order to create a supportive, autism-friendly environment, TDF has provided training sessions for the entire cast and Richard Rodgers Theatre staff.

TDF Volunteers

- TDF has trained volunteers, many of whom are professional autism specialists, assisting the house staff (e.g., ushers, security team). They are available throughout the performance to provide assistance.
- Break Areas will be staffed with TDF volunteers who are autism specialists.
- Additional trained volunteers will be accessible throughout the performance to offer assistance.
- While many volunteers are trained autism professionals, they are not authorized to provide therapeutic services in this environment. Parents and caregivers are solely responsible for their care receivers at all times.

We look forward to seeing you on Sunday, May 31, 2026!
