at the Richard Rodgers Theatre!

Please note that the theatre doors open at 12:30 p.m. The house staff will let everyone in as soon as they are ready to seat the audience.

Patrons may need to wait in line before passing through security.

The security team helps to make sure everyone is safe. A security dog may be part of this team. The dog will not touch patrons. The dog may bark to communicate with the security team.

Theatre staff will scan each ticket so patrons can enter the theatre. The location on each ticket corresponds to a specific seat. Once inside, an usher will let everyone know where to go.

At the theatre, TDF volunteers will be passing out fidget tools.

Patrons may use the bathroom on the way to their seats or at any time during the show.

All restrooms are Family Restrooms. Anyone may use any restroom and caretakers may provide personal assistance as required.

The theatre will become darker and quieter once the show is about to begin.

The actors wear costumes when performing. This helps them pretend to be the characters they are portraying.

Actors will not touch anyone in the audience.

The audience may clap during and at the end of the show. Clapping lets the actors know that the audience likes their performances.

If the clapping or other sounds are too loud, TDF volunteers have earplugs and noise-canceling headphones to help make it quieter.

If the show is ever too loud or too bright, Break Areas are available.

In these areas, there are beanbag chairs and mats to sit or lie on.

When ready, patrons may go back into the theatre to experience the show!

There is an intermission during the performance. This is a short break between the first and second parts of the show.

During intermission, audience members may walk into the lobby area or stay in their seats.

As intermission draws to a close, the theatre will flash the house lights to signal that it's time to return to your seat. Everyone will come back and sit down.

The theatre will become dark and quiet again. The performers will come back onstage and finish their performance of Hamilton.

When the performance is finished, the audience will leave the theatre. We look forward to seeing you at Hamilton and other TDF Autism Friendly Performances!
