

LOGISTICS GUIDE

Thank you for purchasing tickets to the TDF Autism Friendly Performance of Maybe Happy Ending on Sunday, October 25, 2026 at 1 p.m.
We are very excited to welcome you!

This guide contains important information to support your experience at the show.

FAST FACTS

WHERE: BELASCO THEATRE

111 West 44th Street between Sixth and Seventh Avenues in Manhattan

WHEN: Sunday, October 25, 2026

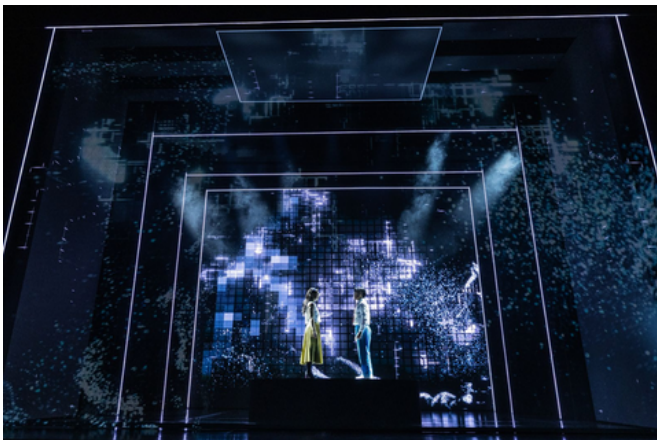

PERFORMANCE BEGINS at 1 p.m.

DOORS OPEN at 12:15 p.m.

RUNNING TIME is 1 hour and 40 minutes with no intermission

CONTENT AND VENUE ADVISORY

- Mature themes:
 - Challenging topics are explored, including death, infidelity, abandonment, memory loss, aging, and the consequences of making difficult choices.
- Sensory:
 - There are moving videos projected onstage to depict characters' memories.
- Venue:
 - The balcony at this theatre is steep.
 - The stairs up to the mezzanine and balcony are steep, and the top of the stairs is not visible from the bottom.

GETTING INTO THE THEATRE

There are two steps into the Belasco Theatre from the main entrance at 111 West 44th Street.

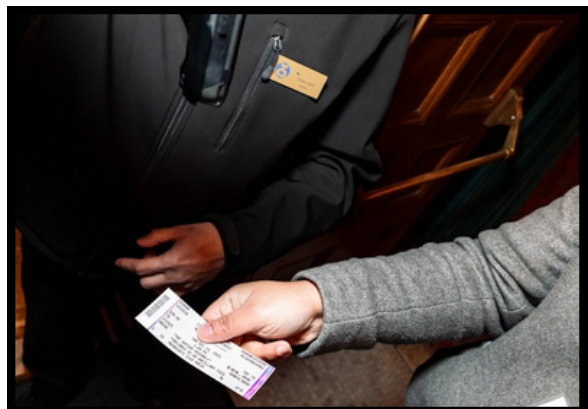

An alternate entrance with an accessible path of travel is located to the left of the main door.

Please note that the theatre doors open at 12:15 p.m. The house staff will let everyone in as soon as they are ready to seat the audience.

You will be taken through security and asked to present your tickets for scanning.

Most rows in the orchestra are accessible without steps except for P and Q, which require one step each.

Wheelchair seating is available in rows J, L, O, and P, but only from the side to avoid the step.

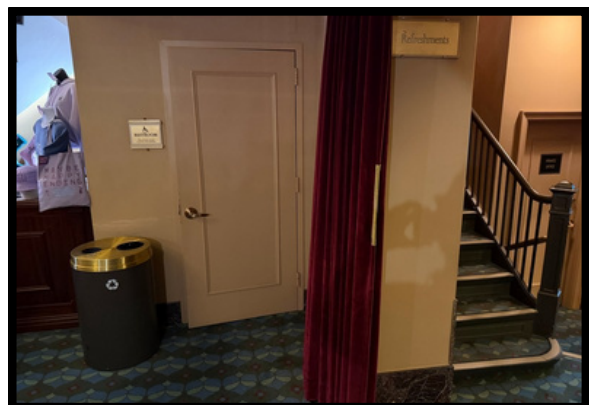

The mezzanine and balcony require stairs and there are two steps between each row.

There is no elevator.

One wheelchair accessible restroom is available on the orchestra level.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Photos and videos are NOT PERMITTED inside the theatre. We want you to enjoy the show while still respecting the theatre's policies.

- TDF will have a professional photographer on-site taking flash photos to be used on social media.
 - Please let the photographer know if you do not want to be photographed.
 - There is no charge for having your picture taken. These photos will be available to download for free from TDF's Facebook page at facebook.com/tdfnyc a few days after the performance.
- While you are not allowed to take photos or videos during the performance, communication devices are welcome. Theatre staff are trained to recognize the difference between filming and using communication devices.

RESOURCE MATERIALS

Resources for this TDF Autism Friendly Performance of Maybe Happy Ending can be downloaded at tdf.org/maybe.

- Logistics Guide (fast facts)
- Visual Narrative (visual guide to the theatregoing experience)
- Character Guide (pictures and descriptions of the characters)
- Picture Checklist (overview of the experience in list form)

We encourage you to take advantage of these tools in advance to become familiar with the performance experience. Printed Character Guides will also be available at the performance.

TOOLS

- Some fidgets, earplugs, and a limited number of headphones will be available at the performance.
- Small personal supports (e.g., fidgets, sunglasses, and headphones) are allowed in the theatre.
- Assistive listening devices are available. Please see a guest experience representative at the theatre to arrange.
- If you are planning to bring a service animal to the performance, please notify us in advance at autism@tdf.org.

SPACES

- Break Areas will be located on all levels of the theatre. They will be staffed with trained professionals and are accessible throughout the performance.
- All restrooms at this performance are Family Restrooms. Caretakers may provide personal assistance as required. Individuals of all genders may enter and use any restroom. At this theatre, the Family Restrooms are located in the lower lobby. Volunteers can guide patrons to the restrooms but cannot enter or assist.
- A wheelchair accessible restroom is available on the orchestra level. This is also a Family Restroom.

PEOPLE

Maybe Happy Ending Staff

- In order to create a supportive, autism-friendly environment, TDF has provided training sessions for the entire cast and Belasco Theatre staff.

TDF Volunteers

- TDF has trained volunteers, many of whom are professional service providers experienced in working with individuals on the autism spectrum. These volunteers assist house staff (e.g., the ushers and the security team) and are available throughout the performance to offer support and assistance.
- Break Areas will be staffed with TDF volunteers who are autism specialists.
- Additional trained volunteers will be accessible throughout the performance to offer assistance.
- While many volunteers are trained autism professionals, they are not authorized to provide therapeutic services in this environment. Parents and caregivers are solely responsible for their care receivers at all times.

We look forward to seeing you on Sunday, October 25, 2026!
